Kyle Woiwood graduates from Leadership Ames XXX

AMES, May 15, 2017 – Kyle Woiwood, CPA, Tax Manager in the Ames office of LWBJ, was among the graduates of Leadership Ames XXX, a program created by the Ames Chamber of Commerce to develop informed, involved and concerned local leaders.

The nine-month, 12-session program was designed to provide both experienced and developing Ames leaders a broader view of civic leadership responsibilities and opportunities through direct contact with institutions and people who shape the community where they live and work. Participants were selected last summer. Covered topics included community development, community schools, nonprofits, state government and quality of life.

“It was a valuable opportunity to learn about every aspect of city, as well as how and why it works,” said Mr. Woiwood. “I also enjoyed being able to meet and collaborate with my classmates, who represented a wide variety of professions and local industries. The skills and relationships I gathered will help me become a more effective leader for my clients, business and community.”

Mr. Woiwood specializes in serving the tax needs of small business and startup clients with expertise in partnerships, corporations and LLCs. He received his Bachelors in Accounting from the University of Northern Iowa.

Application information for Leadership Ames XXXI will be available, this summer, at ameschamber.com.
