

Thomas E. Larson, CPA

1954 - 2016

IN MEMORIAM

Tom was a founding partner of LWBJ. He was instrumental in the growth and success of the firm, and his spirit and vision continue to guide our work, today. For nearly 25 years, our clients benefited from Tom's expertise in auditing and accounting, and the firm did as well.

Tom was born in Fairfield, IA and graduated from the University of Iowa in 1974 where he earned a BBA degree in accounting in 1974. Shortly thereafter, he became a licensed CPA.

After completing his studies, Tom moved to Des Moines where he worked for Ernst & Young before joining several colleagues in forming LWBJ in 1992. At the time of his death, Tom led the firm's Attest Services practice.

He was a member and past president of the West Des Moines Rotary, a board member for the Easter Seals Iowa Foundation, a member of the Iowa Society and American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and a member at the Aldersgate United Methodist Church, where he sang in the choir. He enjoyed playing cards, golfing with friends, University of Iowa athletics and St. Louis Cardinals baseball.

Tom was a true friend, valued partner and mentor to many - both inside and outside the firm. He truly gave his all to our company, and he is deeply missed.
